

BACKWARDS DESIGN INSTRUCTIONAL MODEL

Ask yourself: “What will I accept as evidence that students have learned this?”

Reflection

- Reflection on student learning
- Reflection on teacher effectiveness

Five Key Questions for Backward Design

1. What will I teach?
2. How do I intend to assess the learning?
3. How will I teach?
4. How can I organize the instruction?
5. How will I assess and evaluate the learning?
