READING and DISPOSING of COMMUNICATIONS

Senator Lovett-Doust was pleased to report that the intensive series of meetings to explain the special circumstances of Nipissing University to the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities and the Ministry of Education has paid off. Nipissing University was granted special treatment with regard to the proposed cuts in funded student places in teacher education. Nipissing's funding reduction will be 1.5% (which means a loss of 54 seats). The other teacher education programs across the province will be cut by 2.4%. If we had experienced the same proportionate cuts, we would have lost 92 seats (or $1.38M).

The President also reported that Senators McLaren and Robinson have made a joint proposal for $57K to the provincial government to improve the credit transfer process for college graduates

QUESTION PERIOD

A question was asked regarding the process that was followed to terminate the contract of the Vice-President Academic and Research. The President responded by indicating she was not able to provide a detailed response because the matter was still under review.

There was a question concerning the process used to hire the Chief Operating Officer. The President responded by noting that with a university of this size, many senior level jobs at Nipissing University are broad based compared to their counterparts at larger institutions. She noted that to continue to provide good service and support, a third area of senior responsibility, for service and operations was instituted. This position is an administrative position and the President noted that the COO is supervised and answers to the president. A summary of these changes was provided through NU News and a university community e-mail.

MOTION 1: Moved by F. Noel, seconded by R. Gendron that Senate conduct a vote of "no confidence" in the President of Nipissing University in so far as she has presided over a system which seriously jeopardizes the future viability of the institution. The concerns include:

- A blatant disrespect for Senate;
- The arbitrary changes made to the new library;
- The recent administrative restructuring;
- The arbitrary dismissals which have occurred, most particularly that of the VPAR who was only recently selected to lead the academic sides of the institution by a duly formed committee of the board and senate;
- The arbitrary appointment of individuals to interim positions; and
- The arbitrary decision to delay the evaluation of positions and the manner in which this was communicated to the university community.

Together, these have had a negative impact on the academic budget and Nipissing's ability to deliver its academic programs and have contributed to a climate of intimidation which is directly counter to our mission statement.

CARRIED

The vote was conducted by secret ballot. The speaker pointed out to senate that such a motion is not part of senate procedure or Robert's Rules, and therefore is merely "symbolic."

MOTION 2: Moved by G. Phillips, seconded by C. McFarlane that the results of the motion of no confidence be conveyed to the Board of Governors by Senators G. Phillips, S. Renshaw, and F. Noël.

He noted that there was a presentation by Ms. Megan Venasse, Development Officer, on the role of planned giving and investing in the future. Senator Dennis indicated that there were two resolutions from the Advancement Committee that were passed outlining revisions to the Naming of Campus Assets Policy and the Gift Acceptance Policy. #### ANNOUNCEMENTS

The President announced that she had the privilege of attending the Aboriginal Post secondary gathering in Toronto last week where the Minister of Training, College and Universities launched the new Aboriginal Postsecondary Education and Training Policy Framework document. She was pleased to report that two panel discussions were lead by Senator McLaren and Doug Dokis. She added that both the Minister and Deputy Minister cited Nipissing in their remarks with reference to the Student Links program and other initiatives.

The President reminded senators that next week is March UpClose. She stated that many faculty had already stepped forward to participate in this event, and thanked senators in advance for their involvement. She reminded senators that Nipissing has the highest conversion rate of on-site visiting applicants to registrants in the province. Senator Robinson added that to date, approximately 500 guests have signed up for the week's events.

The President expressed her concern over the decline in the number of applications this year. The general discussion of a surplus of teachers in the system overall has impacted not only Education applications, but also applications to the subjects that students often take in their BA or BSc programs. Currently, the recruiting team is visiting colleges in order to encourage eligible diploma graduates to complete a degree at Nipissing. A number of advertising initiatives are also being implemented. She invited senators to identify distinctive features about their programs and send them to the President's office, and encouraged all to participate in the process of student recruitment. She also noted that the university will describe its programs in more detail on the Ontario Universities' Application Centre website; at present Nipissing merely lists the degrees available (BA, BSc, etc.), rather than also listing the subject areas. An electronic search of the OUAC site fails to reveal the array of options in BA and BSc degrees; this means that potential students do not necessarily realize the diversity of majors and specializations available at Nipissing.

The Vice-President Finance and Administration reminded senators that the key to all our budgetary initiatives is to support and build enrolment.

The Dean of Applied and Professional Studies reported that Nipissing University has become home to the first Canadian Chapter of the Criminal Justice Honours Society. The Nipissing chapter name is Mu Kappa and the Dean added that this is a significant achievement for Nipissing. The Dean was also please to announce that several upper year nursing students will be involved in a program to explore the roles of health care within Canada, the United States and Mexico. Each student will receive travel stipends between $3K and $4K. The project will allow nursing students to acquire new language skills and cultural insight.

Student union president, Senator Lahti reported that NUSU has raised $600 toward the Haitian relief fund. He also shared that a group of students went to South Carolina over the break and did work for Habitat for Humanity. The healthy eating campaign is still ongoing and nominations for valedictorian begin next week. Senator Prince was welcomed to Senate as the new student union senator.

Senate was adjourned: 4:18 p.m.
