

Career Action Plan

After reviewing your personal priorities, values and skills, and considering what opportunities are available to you in the world of work, writing down your goals in an action plan will keep you committed and on task.

Goals: What do you want to do?	Action: How are you going to do it?	Timeline: When will it be done?