

The Department of Social Work presents:

Relation...ships: How are these ships created?

Dorothy Larkman, PhD Candidate, MSW, BSW, RSW
Assistant Professor, Department of Social Work
Nipissing University

Creating a vision of “relation/ship” from an Indigenous perspective utilizing definitions from a Western understanding. Presented will be how “all my relations” are integral to the Medicine Wheel teachings while being explored in the context of non-interference. Knowledge stemming from this Indigenous perspective provides a wholistic perspective on relationships as experienced through a social workers’ profession. How do we move ahead in establishing reconciliation for our Mother through relations?

Tuesday, March 19

4:30-6:00 pm

Nipissing University,
Small Cafeteria (A246)

Refreshments: Bring & Share!

