

MASTER OF ARTS IN SOCIOLOGY SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The Master of Arts (MA) in Sociology – Applied Social Research degree will focus on the application of social theories and research methodologies that assist in understanding and addressing the social problems and challenges of northern and rural communities, including Indigenous communities, in Canada and around the world. The program brings together faculty expertise in Sociology, Health and Populations Studies, Gerontology, Anthropology, Science and Environmental Studies, and Criminology and Criminal Justice. Active involvement in the community, government agency partners, a curriculum of research-intensive courses, and practicum placements will provide you with the theoretical foundations and quantitative and qualitative research skills to undertake applied research, evaluation and policy studies in government, not-for-profit and private organizations.

Streams/Specializations - Students have the option of completing either the one-year Major Research Paper (MRP), or the two-year Thesis Research Project (TRP). Please refer to the Graduate Studies website for more information in regards to the MRP Route and TRP Route.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants must hold an Honours Baccalaureate degree in Sociology or a related field (e.g., Anthropology, Criminology or Criminal Justice) and at least a 75% average on the last ten full (20 semester) courses completed at the time of application to be considered for admission.

NOTE: Non-Academic course grades (e.g. Bachelor of Education, Practical courses, clinical courses, Co-op courses, Placements, etc.) are not used in the calculation of admission averages.

REQUIRED SUPPLEMENTAL DOCUMENTATION:
(Due January 22, 2020)

Please submit transcripts, letters of reference and other supporting documentation after you have submitted your online application. Nipissing University cannot verify receipt of transcripts and supporting documents if we have not received your application. You may paperclip your documents. No staples or folders please. Do not bind documents in any other manner.

1. Online application and fee. The online application can be accessed from our website: www.nipissingu.ca/registrarforms. The base application of $130 will be paid online through the application. Additional transcript fees may apply.
2. Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts from all institutions attended, including those attended on a Letter of Permission or exchange program. High School or College transcripts are not required. A copy of the transcript from exchange programs can be sent directly by your host institution to Nipissing University if they are willing to do so, otherwise an official transcript must be sent directly from the university where the exchange program was held. Transcripts from Canadian and American universities must be sent directly by the issuing institution to Nipissing University (faxed and emailed copies will only be accepted when we can verify that they come directly to us from the issuing institutions). Internationally-educated applicants (with the exception of exchange programs) must have their transcripts evaluated by the World Education Services – www.wes.org/ca. The WES credential evaluation is also due by the documentation deadline.
3. Two (2) academic recommendations from professors or other appropriate professionals who can speak to their level of preparation and readiness for graduate studies. References cannot be completed by anyone who is personally related to the applicant. Recommendations are to be confidential; therefore, they must be mailed in sealed envelopes with the referee's signature over the seal or emailed by the referee using their professional email address and sent directly to admissions@nipissingu.ca. The Academic Recommendation forms are included in this package. Please indicate to your referee that a comprehensive letter included with the recommendation form will be most beneficial in determining your eligibility for admission.
4. Sample of written work.
5. A comprehensive résumé detailing your educational and professional experience. Please include scholarships and awards, significant academic accomplishments, internships, research projects, involvement in student organizations, volunteer work and publications and presentations.
6. A typed Statement of Interest indicating if you intend to pursue either the Major Research (MRP) or the Thesis Research Project (TRP) option and your research area(s) of interest for your MRP or TRP. If possible, please indicate which faculty member(s) you would like to complete your MRP or TRP with. The final admission decision will be based on the availability of an appropriate supervisor.
7. Proof of Proficiency in English for internationally-educated applicants whose first language is not English, also due by the application deadline. Nipissing University accepts the following tests as proof of proficiency in English:
 - TOEFL with a minimum overall score of 93 on the TOEFL iBT, with a minimum of 22 in speaking and writing and 20 in reading and listening
 - IELTS with a minimum overall score of 6.5 and a minimum of 6.5 in reading, listening and speaking and a minimum score of 6 in writing.
 - Pearson Test (PTE Academic) with an overall score of 63, with a minimum score of 60 in each section.

8. Scholarship Applications:

- If you wish to be considered for Ontario Graduate Scholarship funding, please visit the Ontario Graduate Scholarship (OGS) webpage at www.nipissingu.ca/ogs. For questions pertaining to scholarship criteria, please contact sgs@nipissingu.ca or 705-474-3450 ext. 4292. The OGS application is due January 15, 2020 and is to be submitted electronically to the Graduate Studies Department at sgs@nipissingu.ca.
- For other funding opportunities, please visit <https://www.nipissingu.ca/academics/school-graduate-studies/awards-and-funding/types-funding>

Please note that the OGS application requires two Academic Assessment Reports with an academic reference for each. The forms in the OGS application are different than the Academic References required for the Admission application. Should you choose the same academic referees for both the OGS application and the Admission application, your referees will be required to fill out both the Admission reference form and the OGS academic reference and attach a separate letter to each form. Your referees should make note of what is to be addressed for each reference.
