Our teaching approach blends traditional Indigenous culture, knowledge, and worldviews with contemporary understandings of educational theory and practice. Classes are delivered in an inclusive environment where students have access to holistic academic, personal and cultural supports, Elder support as well as a designated student success co-ordinator.

All programs offer summer programming to provide students the opportunity to pursue their educational goals with minimal interruptions to their family and employment responsibilities. Students enrolled in the summer programs are invited to bring their families with them into residence where children have access to the Youth Experience Program www.nipissingu.ca/yep as well as the NU Science Explorations camp www.nipissingu.ca/sciencecamp.

If you want to become a qualified teacher, give back to your community, or further your employment or academic goals, apply to one of the following Indigenous Summer Education programs:

The Schulich School of Education at Nipissing University offers three professional education programs designed for First Nation, Métis and Inuit students. Programs are offered on our beautiful natural campus, which sits on the traditional territory of Nipissing First Nation, within the Robinson-Huron Treaty of 1850, and amid a stunning 720 acres of Canadian Shield forest in North Bay, Ontario.

Indigenous Classroom Assistant Diploma Program (ICADP)

The ICADP offers its students the opportunity to explore the role of the classroom assistant who works with children in elementary public and First Nation schools. Students explore culturally relevant topics while working with elementary students of all academic levels in numerous subject areas. Practicum experiences allow students to connect educational theory to practical applications in the classroom. Our graduates return to their classrooms with newly acquired skills and knowledge gained to assist children in elementary classrooms across Ontario.

Upon completion of the two-year Indigenous Classroom Assistant Diploma Program (ICADP), students are qualified to work, under the professional direction of the classroom teacher and school Principal, as a classroom assistant with Indigenous and non-Indigenous school children.

PROGRAM ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Teacher of Indigenous Language as a Second Language Program (TILSL)

The TILSL Program provides students who are fluent in the languages of Anishnaabemwin, Cree, Ojibwa, Mohawk and Cayuga, the opportunity to earn a Certificate of Qualification and Registration from the Ontario College of Teachers as an Indigenous Language teacher. Students acquire a thorough understanding of new technologies as well as necessary strategies to deliver Indigenous traditional teachings and Indigenous languages as a subject within First Nation and Ontario public schools from grades Kindergarten to 12.

"I really enjoyed my time at Nipissing University in both the ICADP and ITEP summer programs. The opportunity inspired me to continue my undergrad in my home community. I appreciated the format of the summer program which also let me continue my full time employment during the school year. The faculty was very accommodating and helpful and I was also able to complete my practicum while teaching. Everyone within the faculty works hard to ensure student success and job readiness."

"The ITEP program is amazing! It has allowed me to complete my Bachelor Degree in Education while finishing my degree in Physical Education. The ITEP program is a great way to stay in your home community while working on your education. Not only are the summer courses very informative and fun, the online classes are as equally beneficial, not to mention the incredibly knowledgeable educators. This program has prepared me immensely for my career as an educator in an Indigenous school in Constance Lake First Nation. In the future, I plan to keep giving back to Indigenous communities as an educator and building meaningful relationships with First Nation students in Northern Ontario. I am so grateful for this wonderful opportunity and recommend the ITEP program 100%!"
