PREAMBLE

Speaker of Senate:

TERRITORIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT for NIPISSING UNIVERSITY SENATE

As we begin this Nipissing University Senate meeting, I would like to acknowledge that we are in the territory of the Robinson-Huron Treaty of 1850 and that the land on which we gather is the Nipissing First Nation Traditional Territory and the traditional territory of the Anishnabek. We respect and are grateful to hold this event on these lands with our relations.

Accepted and approved by NUACE (now, NUICE) 30 October 2018.

STATEMENT on the IMPORTANCE of COLLEGIAL GOVERNANCE at NIPISSING UNIVERSITY

STATEMENT ON COLLEGIALITY

We believe collegiality is essential to the structure and practice of university governance. Given the diversity of its constituent groups and its mission of advancing truth and knowledge, Nipissing University is best served by the open expression of ideas and opinions; encouraging thoughtful dissenting views. Successful collegial governance depends on all participants acting in good faith and having access to relevant information to offer sound opinions. In the same spirit, we must strive for inclusiveness, equality, transparency, and broad participation in our decision making.

Recognizing the obligations, responsibilities and jurisdictions of the Senate and the Board of Governors, collegial governance requires interdependence and the highest standards of mutual respect and good relationships.

The shared governance and mission of the University is best served when the principles of collegiality are respected. All of us must do our part to uphold the ideals of academic freedom and democratic practice inherent in our system of collegial governance.

- (b) A non-member of Senate may be recognized and permitted to speak at any open portion of a Senate meeting:
 - (i) with the prior approval of the Senate Executive Committee; or
 - (ii) at the discretion of the Speaker; or
 - (iii) by Senate vote on a motion to that effect, which shall not be debatable.

6.7 In Camera Consideration

- (a) During a meeting, Senate may vote to consider specific items of business in camera, thereby closing the meeting to non-members while these matters are under discussion. Such a motion shall clearly identify all items of business to be considered in camera, and is debatable. Should the motion be carried, all non-members in attendance shall be required to leave the meeting immediately.
- (b) Upon completion of all in camera business items and after a motion to close in camera, the Speaker shall declare the meeting once again open to non-members.
- (c) Motions to consider specific matters in camera shall normally come from the Senate Executive Committee and appear in the Senate agenda, but they may also be raised during the course of a meeting by any Senator, as a question of privilege.
- (d) The approval by Senate of honorary degree candidates shall always be considered in camera. Other matters where individual students or University personnel are identified by name or where confidential financial or other information is involved may also warrant in camera consideration.
- (e) Notwithstanding (d), and as a matter of principle, unless a legitimate rationale for in camera consideration is evident or is provided, Senate meetings should remain open to non-members.

7. GENERAL SENATE PROCEDURES

7.0 The Role of Motions in Conducting Senate Business

- (a) Formal Senate decision-making shall normally proceed only through proposing and approving (or otherwise disposing of) appropriately worded motions.
- (b) Further to (a), during the consideration of any report, proposal or recommendation, there shall be a motion, and only one motion, before Senate at any given time.
- (c) All motions brought before Senate shall be moved and seconded before the subject matter of the motion is open for debate.
- (d) A motion may be withdrawn with the consent of both the mover and seconder, but if either objects the motion shall be considered and put to a vote.

7.1 Main Motions and Their Disposition

- (a) The initial motion proposed in connection with any item of business shall henceforth be referred to as the “main motion”. Once the main motion is before Senate, other motions (some of which apply directly to the main motion and some of which are purely procedural) may be introduced and shall be given higher precedence.
- (b) Specifically, once a main motion is under consideration, any of the following motions may be applied to it (listed from lowest to highest, in order of their precedence):
 - (i) a motion to divide the main motion;
 - (ii) a motion to amend the main motion;
 - (iii) a motion to refer the main motion, with instructions;
 - (iv) a motion to postpone consideration of the main motion to a certain day/time; and
 - (v) a motion to close (or limit) debate on the main motion.
- (c) Notwithstanding (a) and (b), the end result in every case shall be that the original main motion or each of its individual parts if divided is carried (with or without amendments), defeated or otherwise disposed of.

7.2 Amendments

- (a) A proposed amendment to any motion before Senate shall be worded so as to:
 - (i) delete specified words from the motion;
 - (ii) add specified words to the motion; or
 - (iii) delete specified words from the motion and substitute others in their place.
- (b) If the mover and seconder of the original motion agree to do so, they may accept a proposed amendment as a “friendly amendment”, in which case the changes shall be incorporated into the original motion without the need for a vote.
- (c) While an amendment is under consideration, an amendment to the amendment may be proposed.
- (d) Any amendment which, if approved, would nullify the intent of the original motion is out of order, and shall be so declared by the Speaker.
- (e) Amendments shall be considered and voted on in the following order, where applicable:
 - (i) the amendment to the amendment;
 - (ii) the amendment, as amended in (i) or as originally proposed; and
 - (iii) the original motion, as amended in (ii) or as originally proposed.

7.3 Debatability and Plurality Requirements of Senate Motions

- (a) The following motions shall be debatable:
 - (i) any main motion;
 - (ii) any motion to divide;
 - (iii) any motion to amend;
 - (iv) any motion to refer, with instructions (debatable both as to the instructions and as to the advisability of referral);
 - (v) any motion to postpone consideration (debatable both as to the proposed day/time and as to the advisability of postponement);
 - (vi) any motion to reconsider a previously-carried or previously-defeated motion (debatable as to the merits of reconsideration, but only if the original motion was debatable and only if no subsequent irreversible action resulting from the original motion has already occurred);
 - (vii) any motion to consider specific items of business in camera (debatable both as to the list of items and as to the appropriateness of closing the meeting to non-members; see 6.7); and
 - (viii) any motion to conduct a vote by roll-call (debatable as to the need for such a vote; see 7.5(e)).
- (b) The following motions are not debatable and shall be put to an immediate vote:
 - (i) any motion to close (or limit) debate on a motion;
 - (ii) any motion objecting to consideration of a motion;
 - (iii) any motion to suspend one or more of these By-Laws;
 - (iv) any motion to adjourn;
 - (v) any motion to conduct a vote by secret ballot (see 7.5(d));
 - (vi) any motion to allow a non-member to speak (see 6.6(b)(ii)); and
 - (vii) any motion appealing a procedural ruling by the Speaker.
- (c) The following motions shall require a two-thirds (2/3) plurality:
 - (i) any motion to close (or limit) debate on a motion;
 - (ii) any motion objecting to consideration of a motion;
 - (iii) any motion to suspend one or more of these By-Laws; and
 - (iv) any motion to adopt or amend these By-Laws.

7.4 Debate and Decorum

- (a) During the discussion of any substantive motion, the mover shall normally be offered the opportunity to speak first and also to make final comments at the close of debate. Other Senators shall normally speak only once, and in any case shall not be permitted to speak a second time until all those wishing to speak for the first time have been recognized and heard.

- (b) Providing clarification or explanation in direct response to a specific question or point of information shall not be counted as speaking to the motion.
- (c) In speaking to any motion, each Senator shall normally be limited to at most ten (10) minutes. The Speaker shall rule on any request to extend this time limit, and any such ruling shall be subject to appeal.
- (d) Senators shall be expected to observe appropriate decorum during any debate. Online attendees are to refrain from using any 'chat' options to respect the principle of one speaker at a time as identified by the speaker.

7.5 Voting on Senate Motions

- (a) Except as otherwise specified in 7.3(c), Senate motions shall be carried by a simple plurality of votes in favour over votes against, with abstentions not being called or recorded.
- (b) Voting on Senate motions shall normally be conducted by a simple show of hands for in-person attendees, and electronic voting for virtual attendees, with the Speaker declaring the motion to be carried or defeated. Should any member request that such a vote be recorded, Senators may be asked to stand or keep their hands in the air until the count is taken.
- (c) Notwithstanding (b), any Senator may, on a question of privilege, move that the vote on the motion before Senate be conducted by secret ballot (including anonymous electronic voting for online attendees). A motion to hold a secret ballot, once seconded, is not debatable and shall be put to an immediate vote.
- (d) Notwithstanding (b), any Senator may likewise, on a question of privilege, move that the vote on the motion before Senate be conducted by roll-call. A motion to conduct a vote by roll-call is debatable as to the need for such a vote.
- (e) Whether a vote is conducted by show of hands, secret ballot or roll-call, the Speaker or Deputy Speaker (whichever is conducting the vote) shall retain the right, as an elected Senator, to vote on the motion. Should the vote on any motion end in a tie, the motion shall be declared defeated.
- (f) Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

7.6 Elections Conducted in Senate

- (a) When elections are to be conducted during Senate meetings, these shall normally take place under the appropriate heading in the agenda.
- (b) If a candidate from one of the two faculties cannot be found to fill a Senate committee position, then nominations from the floor shall be accepted.
- (c) Nominating a Senator (or non-Senator, where applicable) who is not present at the time of the election shall be permitted, provided that it can be reliably reported that the nominee has agreed to accept the nomination.
- (d) Nominations shall be closed by a motion of Senate. If the number of nominees does not exceed the number of available positions, the nominees shall be declared elected by acclamation.
- (e) In each case where there are more nominees than available positions, a secret ballot shall be conducted to determine the outcome of the election.

7.7 Audio/Video Recording of Senate and Senate Committees

Audio/Video recording of open Senate and Senate Committee proceedings is not normally permitted. A motion to allow audio/video recording of a meeting should clearly set out the purpose and use of the recording. Such a motion requires unanimous consent.

7.8 Unprovided Cases

For all procedural situations not covered in these By-Laws, Senate's authority shall be Robert's Rules of Order. However, should procedural situations arise in which these By-Laws and the aforementioned reference are not in accordance, these By-Laws shall prevail.

8. ROLE AND FUNCTION OF SENATE COMMITTEES

8.0 The Role of Representative Standing and Ad Hoc Committees

- (a) The effective conduct of Senate business relies heavily on the work of representative Senate committees or ad hoc committees established specifically to consider a broad range of matters related to the academic function of the University and to report on these to Senate, with recommendations as necessary and appropriate.
- (b) For academic matters of an ongoing nature, Senate shall establish a framework of standing committees as outlined in 9.0.
- (c) At its discretion, Senate may also form ad hoc committees to deal with specific matters. The proposed membership and terms of reference of any such ad hoc committee shall be specified in the motion to strike the committee.
- (d) Ad hoc committees within Standing Committees are problem-finding and problem-solving committees designed to accomplish an assigned task and to report back (with recommendations, if appropriate) to the respective Standing Committee for further consideration of recommendations and conveyance of motions, if applicable, to Senate.
- (e) Ad hoc committees of Senate shall serve until they are discharged by the respective Standing Committee or by Senate.
- (f) The membership of all Senate standing or ad hoc committees should be gender inclusive, and should reasonably represent the diversity of academic or cultural traditions and viewpoints.

8.1 General Committee/Ad Hoc Committee Procedures

- (a) In general, where appropriate and feasible, the procedures of Senate standing or ad hoc committees shall parallel those of Senate.
- (b) Except as stated otherwise in these By-Laws, the President shall be an ex officio non-voting member of every Senate standing or ad hoc committee.
- (c) Unless otherwise stipulated in these By-Laws, all Senate standing or ad hoc committees shall report directly to Senate, while ad hoc committees within Senate standing committees shall bring reports and recommendations to their parent committees for consideration and possible conveyance to Senate.
- (d) A Senate standing or ad hoc committee may also report to another such committee at the other committee's request. Any such report shall also be conveyed to Senate, for information.
- (e) The Chair of Senate shall appoint a recording secretary for each standing committee. In the event of his/her absence, the committee shall appoint another person to act as recording secretary.
- (f) Secretarial support for each committee shall be provided through the office of:
 - (i) the Chair of the committee, when the Chair is an ex officio voting or non-voting member; or
 - (ii) a senior ex officio voting member of the committee, when the Chair is a faculty Senator.
- (g) Committee business, including the passing of motions to be conveyed to Senate, shall normally be done in regular meetings. In the event that a time-sensitive motion must be considered before the next scheduled meeting of the committee, a vote over email is permissible under the following conditions:
 - (i) all members of the committee must be provided the motion and all supporting documentation;
 - (ii) the motion must be moved and seconded;
 - (iii) members must be given a minimum of two business days to ask questions and discuss the proposed motion before votes are cast;

- (iv) members must be given a minimum of two further business days to respond with their vote;
- (v) a simple majority of votes is sufficient to approve a motion over email but the total number of votes cast must make up a quorum of the committee;
- (vi) motions passed over email will be included in supplemental minutes at the next in-person meeting of the committee and clearly marked as motions passed over email.

8.2 Chair and Vice-Chair

- (a) Each Senate standing or ad hoc committee shall have a Chair and a Vice-Chair, who shall either be designated when stipulating the membership or elected by the committee.
- (b) Responsibilities of the Chair shall include:
 - (i) acting as the presiding officer for the committee/ad hoc committee;
 - (ii) working with the committee/ad hoc committee to establish an appropriate meeting schedule;
 - (iii) ensuring that meeting agendas and all relevant supporting documentation are circulated to all committee/ad hoc committee members at least four (4) days before each meeting;
 - (iv) ensuring that the minutes of each committee/ad hoc committee meeting are circulated to all committee/ad hoc committee members;
 - (v) ensuring that the committee/ad hoc committee undertakes adequate consultation with all those who may be affected by any proposals being considered by the committee/ad hoc committee before such proposals are conveyed to Senate or to the parent committee;
 - (vi) preparing committee/ad hoc committee reports and recommendations as necessary and appropriate, for approval by the committee and conveyance to Senate;
 - (vii) acting as the lead spokesperson when reports and recommendations of the committee are presented to Senate;
 - (viii) in general, seeing that all work required of the committee/ad hoc committee is completed in an expeditious and timely fashion.
- (c) The Vice-Chair shall be responsible for fulfilling the responsibilities of the Chair whenever the Chair is unable or unavailable to do so, for any reason.

8.3 Committee/Ad Hoc Committee Meetings and Quorum

- (a) Each committee/ad hoc committee shall establish the frequency and duration of its meetings.
- (b) All meetings of Senate standing or ad hoc committees shall normally be open to non-committee (including non-Senators), and, once scheduled, such meetings shall be announced on the Senate website at least two (2) days in advance, where possible.
- (c) A non-committee member may be recognized and permitted to speak at any committee/ad hoc committee meeting at the discretion of the Chair.
- (d) A voting member of a committee/ad hoc committee may move that a meeting be closed to non-members while certain specified matters are under discussion. Such a motion shall clearly identify all items of business to be considered in camera, and is debatable. Should the motion be carried, all non-members in attendance shall be required to leave the meeting immediately.
- (e) Upon completion of all in camera business items, the Chair shall declare the meeting once again open to non-members.
- (f) The quorum for all Senate standing or ad hoc committee meetings shall be 50% +1 of the voting membership.

8.4 Committee/Ad Hoc Committee Reports

- (a) Written reports of Senate standing or ad hoc committee should be clear and concise. Each recommendation intended for Senate consideration should be clearly stated within the main body of the report, and accompanied by an adequate rationale.
- (b) At the end of each written report submitted for Senate consideration, a list of motions shall be provided, as follows:

- (i) a motion that Senate receive the report (required even if the report includes no other recommendations for Senate consideration); and
 - (ii) a motion for each individual recommendation within the report, carefully worded to reflect the appropriate Senate action being proposed (i.e. that Senate approve the implementation of a new program, that Senate recommend to the President, for conveyance to the Board, the addition of a new tenure-track position, etc.).
- (c) A motion that Senate receive a written report provides an opportunity for general discussion regarding the report and its recommendations, including questions or comments concerning the committee's procedures or the adequacy of the report's analyses and rationales. A motion to receive should normally not be defeated; rather, it should be carried if Senate is generally satisfied with the report and prepared to consider the recommendations therein, or referred back to the committee (with specific instructions) if there are significant concerns.
- (d) Carrying a motion to receive a written report in no way binds Senate to accept the individual recommendations within it.
- (e) Senate may amend the individual motions presented at the end of a written report, but may in no way alter the main body (including the recommendations) of the report itself.
- (f) Oral reports of Senate standing or ad hoc committees shall be permitted, provided that they are brief and for information only. Such oral reports shall not require a motion to receive.
- (g) That all reports sent to Senate committees from Senate for revisions, or documents that have undergone substantive revisions by a Senate standing committee, clearly identify any changes made to the document using track changes or some other form of highlighting.

8.5 Annual Reports of Standing Committees
