

MANDATE

The mandate of the Nipissing University and Canadore College Archives and Special Collection (NUCCASC) is to support teaching, learning, and research through the development of archival holdings and special library collections. As part of the Harris Learning Library, the Archives serves the students, staff, and faculty of the University and College, as well as the community of North Bay.

The Archives is the official repository for the academic and cultural heritage of the University and College and selectively acquires, preserves, and makes accessible institutional and private records in all formats that relate to the history of Nipissing University, Canadore College, and their predecessors. The Archives also selectively acquires, preserves, and makes accessible archival records and publications relating to the history of North Bay and area.
