

HEALTH AND SAFETY WEEK 2026 – CROSSWORD CHALLENGE

ORANGE BLOCK = SPACE (SEVERAL WORDS)

ACROSS

- 3: An unplanned and undesired event that has the potential to disrupt operations or cause harm to the environment, people and/or property.
- 4: Two words; the proactive process of identifying potential hazards in the workplace, often by likelihood, severity, and potential controls.
- 6: Three words; static plumbed equipment used to flush eyes during an emergency.
- 10: An identificatory tag, often found on hazardous chemical containers.
- 12: A systematic examination of existing processes or systems to identify accuracy, efficiency, or functionality.
- 14: A medical device capable of delivering an electric shock to temporarily stop a person's heart and restore normal sinus rhythm.
- 17: The acronym provided to Canada's hazard communication standard for hazardous workplace products.
- 18: Feeling tired? Here is the longer version of the word that can create unsafe work conditions.
- 20: A scheduled walkthrough of a workspace to identify and assess potential hazards for remedy.
- 22: The concept of being negatively affected by close contact, proximity, or repeated subjection to a hazard.
- 23: The scheduled simulation of emergency events to prepare a workplace for actual emergencies.
- 24: Three words; standardized 16-section document providing detailed information and instructions for a chemical product.
- 25: The act of referring an event or incident to a supervisor or workplace for both notification and corrective action.

DOWN

- 1: Two words; the practice of immediate and temporary care to a person's illness or injuries.
- 2: A powerful object that can be recycled here on campus.
- 5: The event that occurs when a chemical falls to the floor.
- 7: The study and science of fitting the work to the worker.
- 8: A source of potential damage or harm to environment, people, and/or property.
- 9: A method of educating employees for both personal development and workplace onboarding.
- 11: An urgent and unexpected event that poses an immediate risk to environment, people, and/or property.
- 13: Be careful on the ice; you may just _____ and fall!
- 15: The red canisters in cabinets and on walls used to combat fires.
- 16: Two words; our Emergency Wardens wear them so that you can spot them during emergency drills and evacuations.
- 19: The ongoing process of following institutional rules and government regulations to ensure a safe workplace.
- 21: The acronym for clothing and objects used to keep workers safe.